150 OVERCOME IN SUBWAY FIRE

LATEST DEVELOPMENT IN STRIKE INDICATES TREND TOWARD PEACE

CHICAGO, July 6.—The 12,000 union signalmen in his country will not be called out on strike for the time being at least, D. W. Helt, president of their union, announced this afternoon in calling a meeting of his executive committee here Saturday afternoon to decide what permanent action the signalmen will take.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The strike of railway shopmen assumed a more conciliatory aspect and feeling became more general in rail circles that the last 24 hours had shown a marked trend toward peace.

It was believed yesterday's exchange of letters between Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the United States railroad labor board, and Bert M. Jewell, head of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor, probably paved the way to negotiations for the early settlement.

Jewell's statement that the shop crafts "are willing to confer with any body authorized by the railroads to bring peace proposals" was accepted as a promising indication of a speedy return to normal conditions in the railroad shops. Mr. Jewell said he neither included nor excluded any body, but that if the labor board came with a definite proposition he would not hesitate to consider it.

The statement was made in the face of the repeated contention by the railroads that the shopmen's strike is not against the carriers but against the government and a matter to be settled before the labor board.

Chairman Hooper asserted that the labor board "has been protecting the interests of the striking shopmen even while they have been calling the board names."

Explaining his failure to answer last Friday's summons to appear at a joint conference before the board, Mr. Jewell said the summons came too late to possibly avert a walkout and his appearance would only have caused confusion in the ranks of the shop crafts who had their orders to strike.

Harbinger of Peace.

Another harbinger of peace in the statement by Chairman Hooper was that a number of railroads which had been farming out shop work to contractors are ready to abolish the contract system, which proved to be the main issue in the shopmen's strike, according to returns in the strike referendum.

Fifty additional wage adjustment cases were set by the board.

Meanwhile the railroads generally were advertising for men to take the places of the striking shopmen and strikers were reported at many points to be drifting back in numbers to their old jobs. This back current continued in the face of repeated assertions by shop craft leaders that the strike was virtually 100 per cent effective.

Despite the agreement of their president, E. F. Grable, and members of the executive committee to withhold strike orders, maintenance men at various points were reported to be joining striking shopmen.

With the exception of Slater, Mo., Bloomington, Ill., disorders on the Chicago and Alton the most serious disturbances of the strike have occurred in the south. At Algiers, across the Mississippi river from New Orleans, clashes occurred between striking shopmen and guards for the Southern Pacific. One man was shot.

At Nashville a striking machinist was arrested charged with attempt to murder a worker in the Tennessee Central shops.

Railroads for the most part announced passenger and freight traffic to be still unhampered.

Ultimatums to strikers to return to work by the early part of next week or forfeit all seniority rights still stood effective in railroad shops today.

Railroads Make Report.

A number of the railroads included in the Association of Railway Executives entering Chicago today reported that a majority of the men were still out on strike. Officials of a number of the railroads announced that after July 10 the men who did not return to their work would lose all seniority rights and will be taken back only as new employes.

The report follows:

Chicago and Northwestern, between 7,000 and 8,000 men out on strike.

Illinois Central, 60 per cent at work.

Santa Fe, 3,500 out of a total of 15,000 at work.

Burlington, 1,400 out of a total of 15,000 at work.

Rock Island, 8,000 out on strike.

Southern Pacific, 50 per cent out.

Union Pacific, 75 per cent out.

A strong willingness to grasp the olive branch of peace until it breaks or until the strike of railroad shop crafts finally is settled was expressed today by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor.

A statement by Mr. Jewell today referred to a letter sent to him yesterday by Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the United States railroad labor board, in which Chairman Hooper said "the board has been protecting the interests of the striking shopmen."

Mr. Jewell's statement in part follows:

"Though the letter itself has not reached me, I can, on the basis of press reports, say that the mere declaration that the organization of men who have declined as their legal right to accept the dictates of the labor board are not to be 'outlawed,' does not remove or annul the official action of the board. The language of the resolution clearly provides that the shop crafts organizations are to be supplanted by organizations of what may be termed 'white-washed strike breakers.'"

Any reply to Chairman Hooper's letter, Mr. Jewell's statement continued, will be determined "after careful consideration." The statement concluded with a reiteration of his willingness to sit in negotiations with any one who has a proposal "up his sleeve."

EQUIPMENT FOR MEN WORKING IN THE SHOPS

TOPEKA, KAN., July 6.—Cots, cooking utensils, pans and equipment of various sorts have been bought in Topeka by the Santa Fe to care for men working in the shops, according to reports here today. CHICAGO & ALTON AWAITS RESPONSE OF THE GOVERNOR

DELAY EFFORT TO REOPEN THE SHOPS AT SLATER, MISSOURI.

STRIKE BREAKERS ARE CLEARED FROM TOWN

Eighteen Men Driven to the Edge of Slater and Told to "Beat It and Keep Going."

SLATER, MO., July 6.—No more nonunion men will be brought here by the Chicago and Alton railroad and no attempt will be made to operate the Alton shops here until protection is furnished to the men by county or state authorities, J. L. Marquette, division superintendent of the railroad, announced here today.

Mr. Marquette, who was in the shops yesterday when a crowd of union men took strikebreakers from their work, today told a correspondent of the Associated Press that he did not consider it safe to send outside men here under present conditions.

The town is outspoken in its sympathy for the striking shopmen and would resent the bringing in of troops as being an effort by the state to aid the railroad company in breaking the strike.

No damage was done to railroad property in yesterday's outburst.

By Associated Press.

SLATER, MO., July 6—Railroad officials today awaited word from Governor A. M. Hyde before making further plans for reopening the Chicago and Alton shops here, from which a crowd of more than 500 strikers drove 18 strike breakers yesterday.

After the strikers had cleared the town of strike breakers, had drawn a deadline around the shops beyond which strangers were not allowed to pass, and had established guard posts at various points, they settled down to a policy of watchful waiting.

Union chiefs and town officials are one in declaring they expect no trouble if the railroad does not attempt to import strike breakers.

Eighteen strike breakers were taken from the shops late yesterday in automobiles to the edge of town and told to "beat it and keep going." Ten more who escaped the first deportation by hiding in a foreman's car in the yards were placed on a Chicago train last night. Trains going through Slater were watched carefully by a crowd of 150 strikers who took command of the railroad station and searched the trains to be sure they carried no strike breakers.

A negro porter on a sleeping car where the strike breakers were quartered was threatened with hanging by the crowd, a railroad official said, and on his knees pleaded for his life. Three men were forced to leave Slater after they had expressed sentiments antagonistic to the strikers.

The strikers say they want no violence and do not expect to have any. They are frank to add, however, that they do not intend to permit the opening of the railroad shops with outside labor.

TWENTY BUILDINGS BURNED IN DUBLIN AFTER SURRENDER

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, July 6.—Twenty buildings in O'Connell street, Dublin's main thoroughfare, were destroyed by fire after the surrender in their resistance to the provisional free state government.

The fires which raged through the night were not completely under control today. Only smouldering ruins remained where the insurgents made their last stand. It is believed the damage will reach several hundred thousand pounds. Four snipers were shot dead during the night. Robert C. Barton, former minister of economics in the dail eireann cabinet, was arrested at the home of Erskine Childers.

The account of the final surrender of the insurgents issued by the national army headquarters, said:

"At 7:30 p. m. a party of men led by Mr. Art O'Connor left the Granville hotel under a white flag and surrendered to Lieutenant Crane.

"One of the party said they were given orders to surrender by Mr. Cathal Brugha. Mr. Brugha, brandishing a revolver, then dashed out. When he came under the fire of the troops he was wounded and was removed to a hospital."

Casualties in yesterday's fighting, so far as the records of the city hospital show, were one killed and 16 wounded.

For the eight days of the fighting in Dublin the casualties were given as 61 dead and 250 wounded, not including four snipers shot dead in Marlborough street and the wounded taken prisoner from the republicans' Sackville street stronghold.

The material loss to the citizens of Dublin is very heavy. The value of the buildings destroyed is estimated at between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 pounds, while the destruction also means the loss of very large sums in rentals and probably considerable unemployment.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DE VALERA'S MOVEMENTS

LONDON, July 6. — Complete mystery surrounds the whereabouts of Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, after the surrender of his beseiged comrades in Dublin to the forces of the provisional free state government.

The rumors reaching here from Dublin are almost as varied as the number of correspondents sending them. One declares it is unknown whether De Valera is alive, another that he has been wounded and captured and a third that he escaped on Monday, having delivered as his farewell watchword to the garrison: "Never surrender, but escape if you can."

DE VALERA HAS MESSAGE FOR PEOPLE OF U. S.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, July 6.—Eamon de Valera, the republican leader, in a message addressed to the people of the United States, declares the pact between the Irish parties has been torn up, that civil war has broken out, that the dail eireann is not allowed to meet and that the provisional government has assumed a military dictatorship supported by the British big guns

"The danger to Ireland which I feared most and warned our people of—civil war—has come upon us," says Mr. de Valera in his message. "Soldiers of the army of the republic have been attacked by forces of the provisional government at the instigation of English politicians who wanted an immediate set-off to the shooting of Sir Henry Wilson in order to avert from themselves political consequences which they feared."

CONTINUE FIGHT TO FORCE CLOTURE RULE ON SENATE

WASHINGTON, July 6—Continuation of the fight provoked by the republican petition for cloture to shut off debate on the administration tariff bill promised to consume much of the day's session of the senate. Presented late yesterday with 52 republican signatures, or 12 less than the two-thirds majority necessary, the petition, under the rules, must come to a vote at noon Friday.

Some of those behind the movement to invoke the cloture rule, which not only would limit debate to one hour for each senator, but would preclude the offering of any additional amendments, doubted that it would succeed Plans to be adopted by the majority if the cloture move failed were discussed at a dinner conference held at the home of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, last night, and attended by a number of leading senate republicans There was no indication of any decision being reached.

Senator Lodge told the senate yesterday that if the present plan could not be invoked it would then be for the republicans to decide whether they would lay aside the tariff and fight for a majority cloture rule or force a resumption of night sessions to speed up a final vote on the bill

Raising an immediate protest against the republican cloture movement, Senator Underwood of Alabama, the democratic leader, declared the proposal of the majority to take away from the minority the right to propose amendment was unfair and that the passage of the bill under a gag rule could never be justified before the country."

THERE WAS A FLASH OF FLAME SMOKE SWEEPS CROWDED TRAIN; POLICE RESERVE FORCE CALLED

By Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 6.—About 150 persons were overcome by smoke today when a northbound Jerome avenue express on the East Side subway caught fire near Lexington avenue and 51st street. Dozens of ambulances were summoned from nearly every hospital in the city and Major Hylan arrived to direct the rescue work.

The accident occurred about 75 feet underground.

The fire started in the motorman's box after a fuse had blown out. There was a flash of flame and the smoke swept through the crowded train.

When the emergency brakes were applied and the train came to a grinding halt, guards threw open the doors and passengers made a mad scramble to escape.

Those unable to walk were carried from the cars to the 59th street station, fire ladders also were dropped through iron gratings at 51st street and unconscious women lifted to the street.

The injured were stretched out on the sidewalks for several blocks. A temporary hospital was organized and 14 pulmotors were put in operation. The crowd of spectators soon became so dense that police reserves had to be rushed to the scene.

Men, women and children filled the 10 car train. Guards attempted to fight the flames with hand extinguishers, but failed. When the firemen arrived, however, they soon succeeded in quelling the blaze, which was small. Many of the fire fighters were overcome by smoke.

Relief work soon got under way. Bloomingdale's department store at 59th street and Lexington avenue promptly organized a fire brigade of 75 employes, who dashed into the subway to aid in the rescue work. The store drug department was raided for supplies and pulmotors.

Mayor Hylan, one of the first city officials to arrive, was driven back by fumes when he attempted to enter the subway. He directed that experts be summoned from the fire department and the department of water supply, gas and electricity to make a thorough investigation of the blaze.

Frank Hedley, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, also hurried to the scene.

GRANDDAUGHTER OF S. B. BURNETT GETS BULK LARGE ESTATE

RECEIVES INCOME FROM TWO-THIRDS OF THE LARGE HOLDINGS.

CREATES A TRUST FUND PROVIDES DISTRIBUTION

Mrs. T. W. Roberts, Sister of Deceased, Will Also Share in the Division.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, July 6—Giving the bulk of the estate to his granddaughter, Anne Burnett, the will of the late S. Burk Burnett was filed for probate Wednesday afternoon in the county probate court

The estate, probably the largest ever to enter Tarrant county courts, is valued at not less than $6,000,000, although it probably has a maximum value of $15,000,000, according to those in a position to appraise it.

Tom L. Burnett, Texas ranch owner and only surviving son, is given $25 000 a year under the provisions of the will A fund of $50,000 was left for improvements of Burk Burnett park, which was donated to the city by the deceased.

Marion Sansom and W E Connell upon their application filed Wednesday in probate court were made independent executors and temporary administrators of the estate. No bond was required as independent executors, but a $50,000 bond was furnished in the temporary administration

Request for the temporary administration was made because the will cannot be probated before the September term of court.

The will provides that the estate be held intact, after the debts against it, the legacies and bequests provided for, shall have been paid Especial reference is made to the Burk Burnett building at Fourth and Main streets, and the Reynolds building at Eighth and Houston streets, the 6666 ranch in King county and the Carson county ranch The executors, while having full power under the will to dispose of any of his property, are urged by Captain Burnett not to dispose of either buildings or either ranch However, there is a stipulation that in the event a railroad is built to Guthrie, that 10,000 acres of the 6666 ranch are to be sold to actual settlers

Creates Trust Fund.

The will in effect creates a trust fund. It provides that the income from two-thirds of the estate shall go to his granddaughter, Anne Burnett, and the income from one-third to his daughter-in-law, Mrs Ollie Anne Burnett, mother of Anne Should Anne Burnett marry and bear children, at her death the entire estate, real, personal and mixed, not otherwise disposed of in the will, shall go to such child or children. In the event of her death without issue or without descendants of such issue, the will provides that the estate shall vest absolutely and in fee in Captain Burnett's sisters, Mrs. T. W Roberts and Mrs. Amanda Barkley, and his niece Mrs. Juanita Atterbury, share and share alike. On this point the will states "Provided, however, that in the event of the death of the said Mrs. T. W. Roberts, who is childless, the share that she would otherwise enjoy herein shall pass equally to the other final beneficiaries herein named; and in the event of the death meanwhile of my sister, Mrs. Amanda Barkley, the share that she otherwise would take shall pass in such way that all the final beneficiaries herein named shall share equally, so that in the event she, the said Mrs. Barkley, should die leaving surviving her a daughter, such daughter shall not take any more or any greater interest in my estate than the other nieces herein provided for"

Thomas L. Burnett, only surviving son is cut off in the will with an income of $25,000 per year during his lifetime. The will provides also that he is to have no part in the management or control of the estate and that in the event he contests its provisions that he shall not share in any of the estate

The executors are directed in the will to proceed with an appraisement of the estate immediately after the probating of the will to determine the value of the community estate to which his wife, Mrs. Mary Couts Barradell Burnett, is entitled On this point the will points out at the time of the marriage that Captain Burnett's estate was worth easily in excess of $1,500,000, mostly in lands which were retained until death; that these estates have increased through a natural process of enhancement and that other properties were acquired with his separate funds all of which have multiplied eight or nine times over and that the community estate is very meager

The only bequest of a public nature provided for by the will is $50,000 for the beautification of Burk Burnet park which Captain Burnett gave to the city several years ago The will provides that the title to this sum shall rest with his daughter-in-law, Mrs Ollie Burnett, and Sidney L. Samuels, his personal attorney for many years, and that they shall direct its spending.

Other Bequests.

Other bequests provided for in the will are:

To Mrs. T W. Roberts, sister, $10,000

To Mrs. Amanda Barkley, sister, $10,000.

To Mrs. Bonnie Shaw, Mrs. Eual Beard, Mrs. Pearly Ferry, Mrs. Ruth Busey, Mrs. Sue Durston, Mrs. Juanita Atterbury, and Mrs Margaret Macon, nieces, $5,000 each.

To Miss Cora Belle Fuqua of Mineral Wells, an invalid, $200 per month during her lifetime and while incapacitated, but to cease upon her marriage.

To Sid Williams, J W Arnett, Joe Christal, Chas Hart, old ranch employes, $5,000; Arnett and Williams in addition to receive $100 a month for life.

To Tom Pickett, John Stapp, ranch hands, and Oak Owens, a negro butler known as "Coley," $50 a month for life.

To Wm H. Hortenstein, for many years secretary to Captain Burnett and manager of properties, $5,000

To Mrs. Margaret Pekor of Columbus, Ga., his God-daughter, $2,500 Mrs. Pekor was formerly Miss Margaret Bicknell, daughter of J W Bicknell of Fort Worth

Marion Sansom, cattl man, and W E. Connell, president of the First National bank, are named as executors without bond or security of any kind. In the event of the failure of either to qualify or the death of either, E. W. Clark, cattleman, is named to take his place Sansom, Connell and Clark were lifelong friends of Captain Burnett

The will provides that the executors shall remain as trustees of the estate after their duties as executors have ceased and that they shall be paid $3,000 annually for their services.

The executors are directed to employ Wm Mortenstein to act with them, because of his familiarity with the affairs of the estate and to employ as their attorney, Sidney L. Samuels. Mrs. Ollie Burnett and Miss Anne Burnett are also directed in the will to employ Samuels as their attorney in all matters arising out of the estate

The will bears date of Nov. 24, 1921, and is witnessed by P Walter Brown of Samuels & Brown, and his wife, Mrs Dora D Brown.

Large Amount of Deep Sea Chicken Condemned by City

Employes of the public health department of Wichita Falls were busy last month as shown by the report recently compiled. Especially were the food inspectors watching out for bad fish During the month of June 880 cans of salmon were condemned and destroyed. Candy was also a commodity that suffered badly, 1087 pounds being pronounced unfit for sale.

The fruit inspected during the month was in most cases eatable. The only fruits that were condomned by the health officials were 250 cans of cherries.

Figures show that during the last month the health department inspected 284 establishments where food was being sold. Forty dairies were inspected and found to conform with the standard prescribed by the department. The cattle tested during this period numbered 107.

Water inspectors reported the testing of 318 water meters. Laboratory tests totaled 142. Of this number 57 consisted of bacteriology tests, and 85 were chemical

The report shows that $886.48 was collected This amount was derived from all sources, which included meter inspections, dairy permits, and scavinger permits. Doctors reported that 33 visits were made to houses where contagious diseases were reported.

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT—CHICAGO, ILL., JULY 4th, 1922

TO MECHANICAL CRAFT EMPLOYES

In compliance with the order of the United States Railroad Labor Board of July 3rd, as follows:

"Whereas in the future submission of disputes involving rules, wages and grievances of said classes of employees of the carriers it will be desirable, if not a practical necessity for the employes of each class on each carrier to form some sort of association or organization to function in the representation of said employees before the Railroad Labor Board in order that the effectiveness of the Transportation Act may be maintained, Now, therefore, be it resolved that it be communicated to the carriers and the employes remaining in the service and the new employes succeeding those who have left the service, to take steps as soon as practicable to perfect on each carrier such organization as may be deemed necessary for the purposes above mentioned and be it further resolved that if it be assumed that the employees who leave the service of the carrier because of their dissatisfaction with any decision of the Labor Board are within their rights in so doing, it must likewise be conceded that the men who remain in the service and those who enter it anew are within their rights in accepting such employment, that they are not strikebreakers, seeking to impose the arbitrary will of the employer or employes, that they have the moral as well as the legal right to engage in such service of the American public to avoid interruption of indispensible railway transportation and that they are entitled to the protection of every department and branch of the government, state and national."

In view of our duty to the public to maintain our service we are obliged to re-organize with sufficient forces.

Before taking this step in view of the harmonious relations which have always existed between us and because we want to give every consideration to faithful employees we ask you to give most earnest and sober thought to your final decision in the matter of returning to our service.

The existing law provides the means of correcting any injustice which you may feel needs correction. For years in the past we have been able to meet and agree amicably on all matters. We believe that consideration can and should exist again Those of our mechanical craft employes who report for their duties not later than for the beginning of the first shift on Monday morning, July 10, may do so with the resumption of full seniority and will be treated as if their service had been continuous. Those returning after that time, if accepted and those newly hired will rank as new employees.

We sincerely urge you to make up your minds individually and to act for the best interests of yourself, your families and the country which is dependent upon your loyal service.

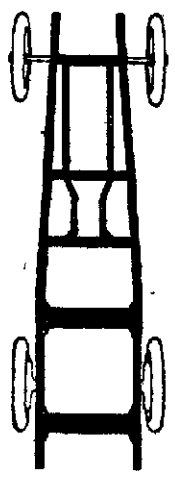
Studebaker Bodies Don't Rattle or Squeak



The Special-Six chassis frame is 7" deep It tapers from a width of 29" in the front to 41" in the rear, so that the sides of the body fit perfectly without overhang. Five cross-members prevent the distortion that eventually causes bodies to squeak.

Studebaker bodies rest squarely on the chassis frame—not on the body sills. The body and the frame form a rigid unit that successfully resists the rack of the road.

Studebaker bodies are built in Studebaker shops by men, many of whom have been building vehicle bodies for Studebaker for upwards of 30 years—and their fathers before them. Studebaker has been building fine bodies for seventy years.

Studebaker Special-Six bodies, because of their quality and soundness, weigh more than those of other cars around the Special-Six price. You cannot skimp in material and build a body that will not rattle.

Freedom from rattle or squeak is just another of the fine-car refinements that emphasize the extra value of the Studebaker Special-Six.

Find Bodies of Man and Woman In Kansas Park

SMITH CENTER, KAN., July 6.—Tourists camping in the city park at Kensington, near here, yesterday found the bodies of a man and woman shot to death in the park. They were identified as the divorced wife of Warren Wood, Kensington, and W. J. Allen of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Wood had been shot four times in the back and Allen had two bullet wounds in his left breast.

A note found with a bankbook in Allen's pockets stated he and Mrs. Wood had been living together in Denver three months, that he furnished her money with which to obtain her divorce from Wood but that when she left him to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Smith of Kensington, he became suspicious as to her fidelity to him and determined to follow her. The note also told of his plan to kill both Mrs. Wood and himself when he found her.

Allen's body was found lying face down across Mrs. Wood's body.

Two Young Women Will be Deported Threaten Suicide

BALTIMORE, July 5.—After close questioning for two hours by immigration officers yesterday Anna Vivdenko and Eugenia Bonar, young women who arrived Monday as stowaways on the steamship Manitowa, were ordered deported to Russia. The women claim to be opera stars. An appeal will be made to Washington.

Dishonor, torture, imprisonment and probable death, the refugees say, will be their lot if they are deported.

"We cannot believe that they will be sent back," said the young women. "The Americans have been kind and generous and so good to us and to thousands of our suffering countrymen that we think it is impossible that they will allow us to be sent back to be killed."

They declare they will commit suicide rather than return to Russia.

REPORT CROWN PRINCE HAS RATIFIED ALL OF CONFERENCE TREATIES

HONOLULU, T. H., July 5.—A cable received here from Tokio by the Nippu Jiji, a Japanese language newspaper, today, stated that the regent, Crown Prince Hirohito, had ratified all treaties formulated at the Washington disarmament conference. The government announced, it stated, that the provision for the abolition of 13 postoffices in China would be carried out within the year as far as Japan was concerned.

Previous dispatches from Tokio stated that the regent would not sign the Washington treaties ratified July 1 by the privy council until the other contracting powers were ready to do so.

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, July 6.—Despite City Solicitor Jess Leigninger's official ruling that William B. Reese is mayor of Youngstown and George L. Oles' resignation stands, Oles announced this morning that he would go to the mayor's office today, take off his coat and resume work where he left off last Friday night when he turned in his resignation.

"I'm still mayor and I'm going to work at the job," Oles declared this morning 'I may yet have to let the court reinstate me," he said.

WOULD GIVE POLAND SIX OF U. S. VESSELS DUE TO BE SCRAPPED

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Establishment of a new navy for a new republic was the object of a bill introduced yesterday by Senator France, republican, Maryland, to authorize the president to give to Poland six of the American naval vessels which are to be scrapped under the arms conference treaty.

LITTLE PROGRESS MADE AT CONFERENCE OF THE SOCIALISTS OF GERMANY

BERLIN, July 6.—The conference growing out of the proposal that the independent socialists participate in the government are still in the informal initial stage and the plan has not yet been discussed seriously by the majority socialists, clericals and social democrats who constitute the other components of the present coalition

On the other hand, the independent socialists are demanding of their more moderate comrades a positive declaration on some of the outstanding topics of socialistic legislation such as nationalization of the coal and potash mines, for which the majority socialists hitherto have only displayed "platonic affection."

Fear that the independents' advent in the government may interfere with Germany's obtaining financial relief abroad is one of the scruples indulged in by the bourgeois coalition parties who are now flirting with the peoples' party in an endeavor to persuade the latter to take on a leftist orientation to forestall the proposed merger. This is viewed with alarm as an inevitable indication that the government will drift into radical currents as a result of the preponderent number of mandates controlled by both socialist parties.

Alkali In Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—adv

Haynes Memorial Fountain Will be Erected New Site

A number of inquiries have been made concerning the Kate Haynes memorial fountains for the erection of which $1 200 was contributed by Alamo school patrons and former pupils of Miss Kate Haynes last year and which was to have been completed at the Alamo school grounds early this year

Erection of the fountain has been postponed until matters are settled concerning the new Alamo school building which will be included in the next building program of the school board As it was strongly probable that an entirely new site would be selected for the big new building the board asked the Home and School council which raised the money to postpone erection of the foun'ain until the site is certain

The $1 200 has been put out at interest Announcement to this effect was made at the closing regular meeting in June but many who were not there have since asked about the fountain

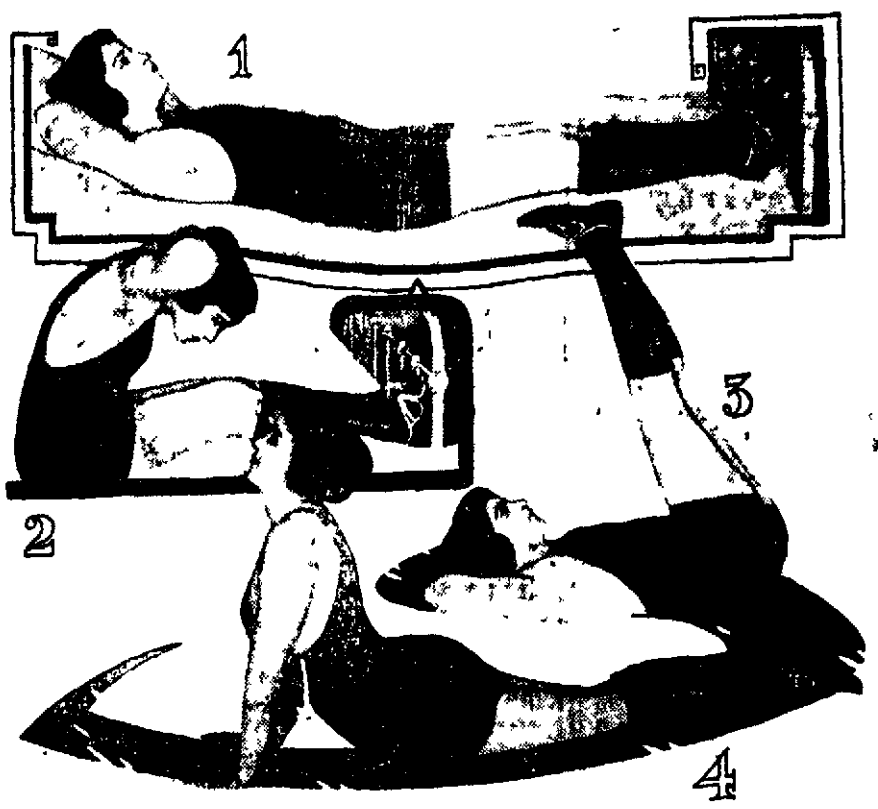
How Do You Pronounce It?

How do you pronounce "leisure" somebody asks Some folks say "lezshur" with a short e and some say it with a long e I've always thought the short e pronunciation was wrong

Both pronunciations are correct, and though the long e is given first it could not be called strictly a preferred pronunciation According to the structure of the word however the long "e" pronunciation is most consistent with the few rules that govern the sound of letters and syllables. Also the word comes from the Latin "licere" (license) and the Latin "i" in an accented syllable is pronounced as long e This would make the root word pronunciation preferable to careful folks.

REDUCE AND GAIN HEALTH BEFORE YOU GET UP!



Anne Hyatt Performing the Exercises She Advocates

By MARIAN HALE

There are hardy souls who bound out of bed and dash through the daily dozen without any greater incentive to action than the alarm clock

Others there are to whom this bounding out of bed is so contrary to temperament and training as to be positively unconstitutional.

For the large majority of women who make up this second class Anne Hyatt has evolved a series of exercises that may be done in bed

She cuts down Walter Camp's number by nine And though you may begin sleepily when you have completed them you have generated so much energy that you actually run to the shower bath—with a smile

Not that the object is the ante-breakfast smile that is a mere by product The real object is the perfect figure

What It Did For Her

Miss Hyatt's exercises are designed to remove the flesh that accumulates about the waist and hips where inactivity registers They carry conviction because she says they will do for others what they did for her

Before she took up physical culture Miss Hyatt weighed 187 pounds A glance at the pictures will show you she doesn't any more.

Since the subtraction of 37 pounds she has won a prize in a national perfect figure contest, and she has conducted a health institute in a Michigan city where she taught other women to work off their weight

Explains Method

Here is her own explanation of the exercises

Before you get up give 10 minutes to your figure

When you awake first hook your feet under the framework of the bed and fold your arms beneath your head as in figure one Then raise the body until the head reaches the position over the knees as in figure two

This will take off the fat that has accumulated about the waist line and will reduce the hips.

Second Position.

For the second exercise, go back to position one Then holding the body rigid, raise the legs slowly until they are at right angles with the body

It is also beneficial to do this exercise with each leg separately several times

For the third lie flat on the stomach then raise the body to the position shown in figure four

Relax after each exercise and do not try to do too many at once If you will do each exercise 10 times daily the first week and mount to 15 the second you will not have sore muscles or be too tired

The value of the exercise lies not in the energy with which they are entered upon but the regularity with which they are followed"

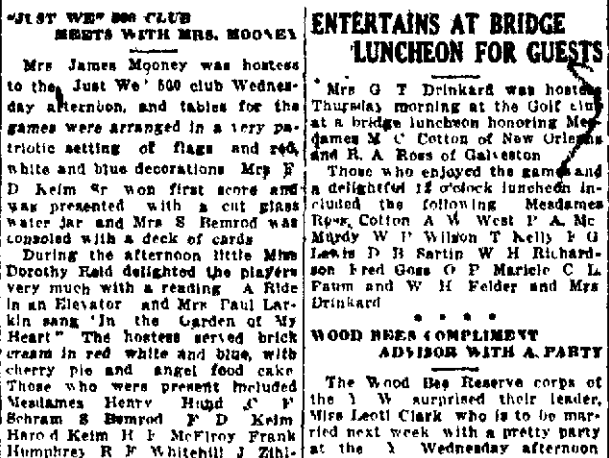
MR. PEERABOUT STARTS TO MOON; BUT MISSES IT

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON



"Look," he cried, catching Buskins' arm and pointing "There's the star that Comet-Legs rides."

Buskins, the funny little fairy man in the apple tree looked at poor Mr Peerabout the Moon Man in surprise Mr Peerabout had fallen down from the Moon you know, and landed in the top boughs

When Buskins found out who the Moon Man was he offered to take him up to the sky in his little elevator

"Oh thank you" said Mr Peerabout gratefully And he lost no time in climbing through the apple branches to the funny little house or elevator, or whatever it was

Buskins pulled a handle and the little elevator began to move slowly at first then faster and faster up through the sky

They passed all sorts of odd places, but Buskins was so interested in the Moon-Man's story and the Moon Man was so busy talking that neither of them saw a thing!

Had they looked very hard they would have seen Nancy and Nick and the Weatherman riding a big green umbrella But they never saw a sign of them

And what do you think they did? They went right past the moon—right past it—on up—past stars and planets and the Milky Way and Mars and Venus and everything

All at once Mr Peerabout looked around

"Where are we?" he exclaimed

Buskins stopped the elevator

"Blest if I know" he said I guess we've gone too far We'll have to go back Here's Blister-Goat land where the Weatherman lives

But Mr Peerabout's sharp eyes had spied something He'd noticed the Weatherman's house with its big chimney and tied to the chimney by a long rope was a star

"Look" he cried, catching Buskin's arm and pointing "There's the star that Comet Legs rides Do you suppose he's there? He's the one that pushed me off the Moon Let's stop"

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

The women there never wear shoes until after they are married so the shoe bills fall to the husband Even in well to-do families this custom prevails

Whom Shall Molly Marry?

WILL MOLLY TAKE WHEELER'S OFFER.

By ZOE BECKLEY

CHAPTER XIII

Molly stood looking down at Ben's strong sun-browned hand as it gripped the tableedge His other arm suddenly went round her shoulder and gave her a firm little jerk.

"Come—answer me,' he repeated do you want strength or sweets"

She raised her eyes and meeting Ben's was surprised to see what good eyes they were He held her gaze steadfastly and pressed her a bit closer against his side

Once more Molly felt a sweep of—what was it emotion? No not quite that Magnetism? Scarcely Ben had not great magnetism that was just the trouble

She decided it was a sense of comfort and safety she felt Comfort and safety without thrill

Ben she answered slowly moving away ever so slightly I am trying to think it out. But you force me so You're so—so hard and—what is the word implacable You make me 'stand and deliver' You insist that I choose between strength and sweets,' as you put it.

"Well, I love strength—' He made a movement toward her '—but the man I marry must have—a certain sweetness too gentleness delicacy—Oh, I don't know how to express it, Ben, but you—you are so hard and—somehow relentless'

Molly turned away, dropping her arms in a weary baffled gesture Ben looked steadily at her his face set in its hardest lines

You mean ' he said, clipping his words harshly, 'that I must offer you more than I do Yet I can give you marriage a fine home plenty of money to do with as you like—to buy all the beauty and sweetness you want As for 'delicacy'—" Ben pronounced the word with contempt I admit I'm no dainty Willie-boy nor do I want to be"

She was silent, angry at herself for her confusion of mind, and at Ben for his dogged persistence

'Very well, then Ben's words fairly clicked I see the answer You're in love with that architect Well, I'm going to change your mind I'm going to change you Just you wait—'

'That's just what I want to do—wait

Molly's failing patience was apparent in her voice, usually soft, now shrill and temperish.

I hate that streak of cruelty in you, Ben You're as hard and stubborn as the metal you deal in

'You say you are going to change me Well, two can play at that game Suppose I undertake to change you—put you through fire and a tearful hammering, as you do your steel' I'm going to do it for your own sake—and mine' Let's see who wins!'

Abruptly she turned and left the office before Wheeler could meet her challenge

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. From this moment on, cast from your mind all dread and fear, and feel every day as the months roll by that great freedom from much of the suffering which thousands of expectant mothers undergo, unnecessarily. And when the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. O. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally to the abdomen, back and hips It aids the muscles and tissues to expand easily It penetrates quickly. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs It is safe. There is no substitute Avoid useless greases sometimes recommended by the unknowing. 'Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists

NOTE—Write for valuable free illustrated book Motherhood and the Baby' containing important authoritative information which every expectant mother should have and all about "Mother's Friend," to Bradfield Regulator Company, BA-30, Atlanta, Ga.

MANDATORY WRIT OF INJUNCTION IS DENIED PLAINTIFF

Judge H R Wilson of the 30th district court Wednesday evening denied to grant a mandatory writ of injunction to W M Sims in his suit against J H Spielman and wife

The action was brought following the improvements made on the lots owned by the two parties which adjoin each other

It appeared from the evidence that the plaintiff had lowered a driveway and after that water kept coming into the lot of the defendant Later the defendant had two loads of dirt hauled into the back end of the lot which raised it above the level of the plaintiff's driveway and lot causing the water to congregate there

The plaintiff sought to have this dirt removed by a mandatory writ of injunction

An Aid to Wearing This Season's Fashions

(Helps to Beauty)

Here is a simple, unfailing way to rid the skin of objectionable hair: With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to cover the hairy surface, apply and in about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished This is quite harmless, but to avoid disappointment be sure to get the delatone in an original package and mix fresh as wanted.—adv.

DOES LAUNDRY WORK AND HOUSEWORK TOO

Surprised to Find Herself Feeling So Well

Taunton, Mass.—"I used to have pains in my back and legs so badly, with other troubles that women sometimes have, that my doctor ordered me to stay in bed a week in every month. It didn't do me much good, so one day after talking with a friend who took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for about the same troubles I had, I thought I would try it also. I find that I can work in the laundry all through the time and do my housework, too. Last month I was so surprised at myself to be up and around and feeling so good while before I used to feel completely lifeless. I have told some of the girls who work with me and have such troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I tell them how it has helped me. You can use my testimonial for the good of others."—Mrs. BLANCHE SILVIA, 59 Grant St., Taunton, Mass.

It's the same story—one friend telling another of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Let all those that put their trust in Thee rejoice: let that love Thy name be joyful in Thee.—Psalm 5:11.

I tell you this for a wonder, that no man shall then be glad
Of his fellow's fall and mishap to snatch at the work he had.

Then all mine and all thine shall be ours, and no more shall any man crave
For riches that serve for nothing but to fetter a friend for a slave.

For all these shall be ours, and all men's, nor shall any lack a share,
Of the toil and the gain of living in the days when the world grows fair.
—William Morris.

READING CANDIDATES OUT OF THE PARTY.

Six years ago the political opponents of the senior senator from Texas made an attempt to convince the democrats of this state that he was both physically and mentally a wreck and therefore unable to represent the interests of this great state in the upper house of congress. Such reports naturally caused the friends of Senator Culberson to make inquiries, and committees representing different organizations of this state were sent direct to Washington to investigate these reports, with the result that in each and every insance they were found to be false and placed in circulation purely for the purpose of advancing the political interests of his political opponents. That the democrats of this state were justified in their verdict six years ago is clearly proven by the official record of Senator Culberson in the United States senate for the past six years. With but two notable exceptions, Culberson has answered to more roll calls during the past six years than any other member of that body. If he had been the physical wreck that his political opponents represented him to be at that time, such a wonderful attendance record would have been impossible. That he is mentally a giant is admitted by all—regardless of party affiliation. Seeing, perhaps, that it would not do to attack him again on the ground that he was physically unfit to represent this great state in the senate, one newspaper in this state is attempting to read Culberson out of the democratic party, and it just so happens that this particular newspaper is espousing the cause of a gentleman to succeed Culberson who distinguished himself years ago by advocating the appointment of Wright Cuney, a negro, to the position of collector of customs at the port of Galveston. That he had influence in those days with the party in power at Washington cannot be doubted, as evidenced at the time by the appointment of the negro over a white republican. Probably this editor has not resided in this state long enough to know this, or probably he is of that type of democrat who cannot see the necessity of drawing the color line in the South. At any rate, the friends of Culberson have no quarrel with him. The incident has long since been forgotten and no one perhaps would have ever recalled it but for the fact that this editor has attempted to read Senator Culberson out of the democratic party. Culberson has been and is yet a faithful and efficient servant of the people, and attacking his record as a democrat is not going to advance the political interests of any one of his political opponents. As the Times views it the candidates for the United States senator whose names will appear on the democratic ticket, are good democrats, with one exception, and one of them is going to represent this great state in the upper house of congress. So let's not attempt to read them entirely out of the democratic party before we know to a certainty which one we are going to support at the general election as the nominee of the great and unterrified democracy of grand old Texas.

BREAK THREATENED IN HIGH TARIFF LINE.

Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, is reported as threatening to break away from the republican leadership in the senate unless there is a substantial lowering of the tariff rates proposed by them.

Lenroot can see the writing on the wall if the republican leaders persist in foisting upon the American people a tariff bill with even higher rates than that which wrecked the republican party in 1913.

Yet there are democrats in Texas who want to join with these high tariff republicans in robbing the southern farmer and the southern consumer of millions of dollars in exchange for a few paltry favors, some of them spurious. It is this kind of attitude that is encouraging the high tariff advocates to continue a course that will disrupt the industry and commerce of the nation and rob the south. No reform of the tariff can be accomplished unless those who oppose the high rates stand steadfast. If our representatives do stand steadfast there is hope that enough republicans of the type of Senator Lenroot will join them to bring about some amelioration of the conditions that are about to be imposed upon us.

Dutch girls dress like their mothers, but it is just the other way around in America.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

BE EAGER—ANTICIPATE

The late Henry P. Davidson, one of the Morgan partners, was a great student of office boys. He liked to watch them grow.

"Some of these boys," he said, "tried to get out of doing anything; others promptly did whatever they were told—but there were a few who were always on tip-toe, with eyes and ears alert, eager to anticipate the wishes of their superiors and anxious to find ways of making themselves useful."

Most successful men have risen to great station of power and usefulness through doing the things that the ordinary person paid no attention to—"because they weren't paid for it."

Only as one is eager, as he is dead in earnest—always anticipating—is he worthy to wear the shoes of those who have dared and done things.

It is a good thing to remember that service is not a common commodity—but something that is literally pumped out of one's soul for the betterment of all people and for all time.

And to gain any high ideal, we must keep stepping outside our regular path in order to help the other fellow and make it just a little easier for him.

That is what gives us that spirit of eagerness—of anticipation.

There is little to be gained in the mere rewards of money, of position or unique fame. It is only as we are thrilled by the reaction from helpful tasks performed that we gain in eagerness and are led to anticipate something better.

Be eager. Grow in warmth as you see in yourself some gain over yesterday. Anticipate character worth. It is the only thing that cannot be taken from you.

And remember that what you earn by giving away is what you really keep as a priceless possession.

JUST FOLKS

—By— Edgar A. Guest

TEN YEARS OLD

Ten years old and your head up high,
With never a cloud in the summer sky
And seldom a tear to dim your eye.

Ten years old, and you fancy still
That life must bow to your slightest will,
And you may eat till you've had your fill

Ten years old, and your legs are stout
And made for kicking your new shoes out,
And you haven't accountered a single doubt.

The worst you know of the world so far
Is a cut or a bruise from a jolt or a jar
And the terrible trial that fractions are.

Ten years old, and your laughter rings
As sweet as the songs the robin sings,
For never a burden the morning brings.

Little you know of the ache and strife
And the pitiless edge of Fate's cruel knife,
Or the hurts which come in the game of life.

For always the sun is as gleaming gold
And never the wintry days seem cold
Or the troubles real, when you're ten years old.

But laugh along and reap your fun,
Out of your boyhood you soon must run,
And care begins when the playtime's done.

Then as you stand where I stand today,
Watching a boy of your own at play,
It may be that I shall have gone away!

But I hope you'll smile as I smile at you,
Hearing his laughter the whole day through,
And think once more of the joys you knew.

Then you may tell, as his hand you hold,
As I'm holding yours, what your dad once told:
It's a wonderful joy to be ten years old.

SMILE A WHILE

One serious mistake was making the hottest months of summer have 31 days each.

There is a quotation with 26 letters in it. Indicating the letters by their numerical position in the quotation, new words have been formed with them.

Can you unravel the mystery of the hidden quotation? Here are the keywords:

What City Management Did for Beaumont

Denison Herald: The municipal progress of Beaumont, a $100,000,000 corporation with 40,000 stockholders during the two years of city manager government was presented to a committee of Austin citizens by George Roark of Beaumont, city manager, a few days ago. The story, as reported in the columns of the Austin American, is but a repetition of duplication of the experience of nearly every other city in the country that has changed from the aldermanic to the city manager form of government and given it a fair trial. It was disclosed in the address that prior to the change the city had in less than four months of the new year expended all of its receipts for current taxes the past year and was obliged to operate the remainder of the year on borrowed money. That in two years after the change was made, not a dollar of the past year's revenue was touched until four months after close of the fiscal year and not a dollar was borrowed during the year. It was brought about through application of strictly business principles to the affairs of government. There were no political debts to be paid, no healers to reward, no friends to favor and no enemies to punish. The city was simply operated on the basis of an immense business institution with 15 citizens composing the council meeting once a month as a board of directors and to whom the manager made report of the progress and development of the city's business. The manager is clothed with authority to employ and discharge employes and he is held to a strict accountability for the success of the business. Should he fail to deliver the goods, he, of course, is subject to dismissal, just as the superintendent and manager of any business institution is discharged when he fails to meet the requirements of his position. The reason so much money is required to conduct governmental affairs, municipal, state and national is because they are politically managed. We complain about high taxes, the constantly increasing burdens of government, and yet pursue the same old course, year after year, which time has proven to be the most costly and at the same time yielding less results than is possible of attainment were methods changed. There is no sense in it requiring two billion dollars annually to conduct the federal government, or twenty millions annually to carry on the state government, or one half million to administer the business interests of Denison. Were ordinary rules of business applied in their management the expense budget could be reduced by one half at least and at the same time greater development and progress shown in the way of public improvements. This is not intended as a reflection upon those charged with the administration of public affairs, the fault is not with them but the system under which they are forced to operate. Neither can any far reaching improvement be expected until the people become impressed with the fact that the city, the state and the nation are immense business corporations depends exclusively on them being conducted in accordance with approved business principles.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY.

Today's word is crisis.

It's pronounced kri-sis, accent on the first syllable and both the i and the e long.

It is the plural of crisis, which means the decisive moment or turning point.

It comes from the Latin, though originally taken from the Greek "to separate."

It's used like this—"Many crises arose which called for quick action by President Lincoln."

FLYING.

All women will be interested to know that the first woman to give birth to a baby in an airplane is Mme. Georges Breyer of Lyons, France. Baby arrived while the plane, 6,000 feet above the Mediterranean, was rushing mother to the hospital.

This is exceptional now. Later it may be common. Future generations may live in flying houses. Impossible? The airplane of today, compared with future flying machines, is as crude as primitive man's first log canoe compared with giant ocean liners of modern times.

MEXICAN PETE.

James Livermore, foremost stock market operator, denies the Wall Street rumor that he lost $2,500,000 by getting caught short of Mexican Petroleum stock.

Many times that much, however, was lost by the unknowns who guessed the market wrong.

"Mexican Pete" advanced 70 points in 12 days, half a million shares changing hands. Then it dropped 22 points. And still, the Louisiana lottery was put out of business.

An education increases the average person's earning power $40,000 during his lifetime. This is the estimate of experts, given publicity by Alice Lakey, editor of Insurance Magazine.

Admitting that the estimate is correct, parents are giving their child a mortgage on $40,000 when they send them through ward school, high school and college, or $2,000 for each year spent in school.

Tell this to the child who wants to quit school and go to work. On top of the $40,000 is the far greater value of education to the intellect and soul.

RUBBER.

Far-off happenings reach and affect us all, eventually. Dutch and British rubber growers unite to regulate the output of rubber. To start with, 100,000 tons of surplus rubber will be held from market "to stabilize prices" — which means, send them up.

The buyer of auto tires may get the reaction later.

We are entering a period in which international trusts will be a greater problem to consumers than monopolies at home.

GODS.

In the temple at Sing Ying, China, are statues of 525 different Chinese gods.

The Chinese, not desiring to overwork their imaginary divinities, have a separate god for every branch of human activity—for instance, Tu Chian Kui, god of gambling.

The inability to grasp the idea of One Supreme Intelligence is a sure sign of mental defectiveness, however brilliant the brain may be in other directions. Chinese lack imagination. So do atheists.

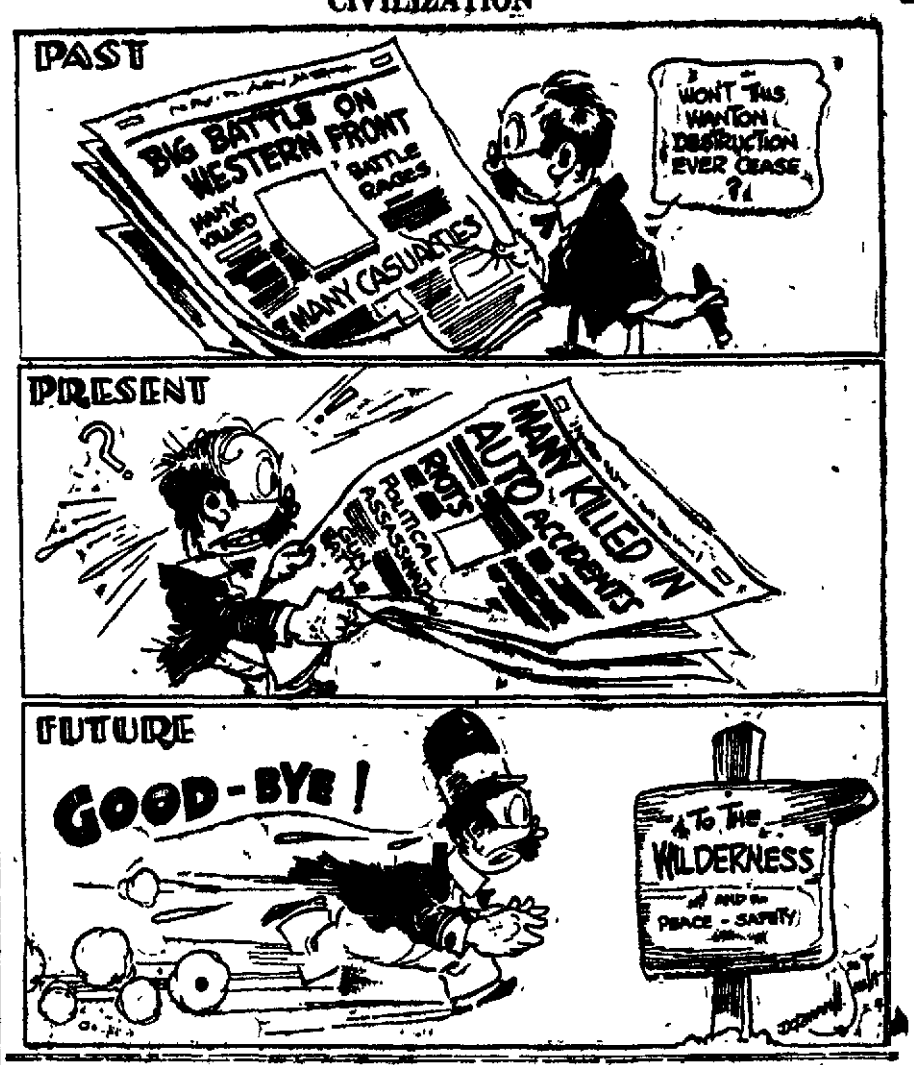
CIVILIZATION



SCARAMOUCHE

© by Rafael Sabatini

It was opened by a tall, slender, gracefully-proportioned man of perhaps forty.

In the crook of his left arm he carried a fencing-mask. His keen glance played over Andre-Louis from head to foot.

"Monsieur?" he inquired, politely.

It was clear that he mistook Andre-Louis' quality, for despite his sadly reduced fortunes, his exterior was irreproachable.

"You have a notice below, monsieur," he said.

"You are come in regard to that?"

Andre-Louis shrugged and half smiled. "One must live," said he.

"But come. Take off your coat," M. des Amis said, "and let us see what you can do. Nature, at least, designed you for a swordsman. You are light, active, and supple, with a good length of arm, and you seem intelligent. I may teach you enough for my purpose, which is that you should give the elements of the art to new pupils. Take here."

He led him to the end of the room that mask and foil, and come over where the bare floor was scored with lines of chalk to guide the beginner in the management of his feet.

At the end of a ten-minutes' bout, M. des Amis offered him the situation, and explained it. In addition to imparting the rudiments of the art to beginners, he was to brush out the fencing room every morning, keep the foils furbished, assist the gentleman who came for lessons to dress and undress, and make himself generally useful. His wages for the present were to be forty livres a month.

The position had its humiliations. But, if Andre-Louis would hope to dine, he must begin by eating his pride as an hors d'oeuvre.

"And so," he said, contrelling a grimace, "the robe yields not only to the sword, but to the broom as well. Be it so."

It is characteristic of him that, having made that choice, he should have thrown himself into the work with enthusiasm.

Every morning before the opening of the academy, the master would fence for half an hour with his new assistant. Under this really excellent tuition Andre-Louis improved at a rate that both astounded and flattered M. des Amis. He would have been less flattered and more astounded had he known that at least half the secret of Andre-Louis' amazing progress lay in the fact that he was devouring the contents of the master's library, which was made up of a dozen or so treatises on fencing by great masters.

At the end of a month it suddenly dawned upon M. des Amis that his assistant had developed into a fencer with whom it became necessary to exert himself if he were to escape defeat.

"I said from the first," he told him one day, "that Nature designed you for a swordsman."

"To the master be the glory," said Andre-Louis.

His relations with M. des Amis had meanwhile become of the friendliest, and he was now beginning to receive from him other pupils than mere beginners. M. des Amis, a chivalrous, open-handed fellow, rewarded his zeal by increasing his wages to four louis a month.

CHAPTER II

Andre-Louis was in the gardens of the Palais Royal, the universal rendezvous, on that Sunday morning in June when the news of Necker's dismissal spread, carrying with it dismay and fury.

He beheld a slight young man with a pock-marked face leap to a table outside the Cafe de Foy, a drawn sword in his hand, crying, "To arms!" And then upon the silence of astonishment that cry imposed, this young man poured a flood of inflammatory eloquence.

Enthusiasm swept the crowd, a motley crowd made up of men and women of every class, from vagabond to noblemen, from harlot to lady of fashion.

Andre-Louis looked on, and grew afraid. This crowd, he felt, must be restrained. That hot-headed, irresponsible stutterer would have the town in a blaze by night unless something were done. The young man, Camille Desmoulins later to become famous, leapt down from his table still waving his sword, still shouting, "To arms! Follow me!" Andre-Louis advanced to occupy the improvised rostrum, and came suddenly face to face with a tall man beautifully dressed. Thus face to face, each looking into the eyes of the other. Then Andre-Louis laughed.

"That fellow, too, has a very dangerous gift of eloquence, M. le Marquis," he said.

"Gallows-bird!" he was answered. "I shall tell the Lieutenant-General that you are to be found in Paris."

"My God, man!" cried Andre-Louis. "Will you talk like that of Lieutenant-Generals when Paris itself is likely to tumble about your ears or take fire under your feet?"

A rush of men hurtled against him, swept him along with them, do what he would, separating him from M. de La Tour d'Azyr, so oddly met.

Bloodshed there was that day in Paris. On the Place Vendome a detachment of dragoons awaited the crowd out of which Andre-Louis had slipped. The horsemen swept down upon the mob, dispersed it.

The victims were taken up and borne thence, and amongst them was Bertrand des Amis, himself—like all who lived by the sword—an ardent upholder of the noblesse, trampled to death under hoofs of foreign horsemen launched by the noblesse and led by a nobleman.

To Andre-Louis four men of the people brought that broken body of one of the earliest victims of the revolution that was now launched in earnest.

CHAPTER III

The ferment of Paris which, during the two following days, resembled an armed camp rather than a city, delayed the burial of Bertrand des Amis until the Wednesday of that eventful week. Andre-Louis succeeded to the fencing school in which he was himself so well established as an instructor.

And so, one fine day in early August, he received a visit from Le Chapelier.

"I have news for you, Andre. Your godfather is at Meudon. There have been fresh disturbances in Brittany."

Not until Sunday was Andre-Louis able to satisfy a wish which the impatience of the intervening days had converted into a yearning. Dressed with more than ordinary care, his head elegantly coiffed—Andre-Louis mounted his hired carriage, and drove out to Meudon.

It was into the presence of a peevish and rather somnolent M. de Kercadiou that Andre-Louis was ushered. He was unannounced, as had ever been the custom at Gavrillac.

"What do you want here?" growled M. de Kercadiou.

"No more than to kiss your hand, monsieur my godfather," said Andre-Louis, submissively, bowing his sleek black head.

"You can't. You'll never make me understand how you came to render yourself so odiously notorious in Brittany."

"Ah, not odiously, monsieur!"

"Certainly, odiously. It is said even that you were Omnes Omnibus, though that I cannot, will not believe."

"Yet it is true."

M. de Kercadiou choked. "And you confess it? You dare to confess it?"

"What a man dares to do, he should dare to confess—unless he is a coward."

"Oh, and to be sure you were very brave, running away each time after you had done the mischief, turning comedian to hide yourself, doing more mischief as a comedian, provoking a riot in Nantes, and then running away again, to become God knows what—something dishonest by the affluent look of you. My God, man, I tell you that in these past two years I have hoped that you were dead, and you profoundly disappoint me that you are not!" He beat his hands together, ad raised his shrill voice to call—"Benoit!"

"Benoit, the door. M. Andre-Louis Moreau to the door!"

The tone argued an irrevocable determination. Pale and self-contained, but with a queer pain at his heart, Andre-Louis heard that dismissal. And then another voice, a crisp boyish voice, cut in.

"Uncle!" it cried, a world of indignation and surprise in its pitch and then: "Andre!" And this time a note almost of gladness, certainly of welcome, was blended with the surprise that still remained.

Both turned, half the room between them at the moment, and beheld Aline in one of the long, open windows, arrested there in the act of entering from the garden, Aline in a milk-maid bonnet of the latest mode, though without any of the tricolor embellishments that were so commonly to be seen upon them.

She was coming toward him now with outstretched hands, a heightened color in her cheeks, a smile of welcome on her lips. He bowed low and kissed her hand in silence.

How to Keep Cool

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

The coolest person in hot weather is he who uses common sense in helping his body in a normal way.

Nature provided us with a heating and cooling system. The temperature regulating system of the body is a very delicate piece of machinery and cannot function satisfactorily if over driven or over loaded with fuel.

When the weather is hot, the surface blood vessels are expanded and the sweat glands bathe the body with perspiration. By its evaporation the skin is cooled, the rapidity and degree of cooling depending on the rate that the air is moving. Drafts are harmless in summer unless the cooling of the body is too rapid. A fan is as useful to the human machine as it is to an automobile.

A daily bath keeps the pores open. Light clothing aids in rapid evaporation of the perspiration. Some exercise is essential, but over exertion in the hot sun should be avoided.

The matter of diet is one of importance. Fats, sugars and starches are heat producing. Nature gave us green vegetables and fruits in abundance during the summer. Over eating overloads the system. Eat moderately of a varied diet.

Food spoils more quickly in hot weather on account of the rapid growth of the organisms of decay. Be careful when away from home that food served is not tainted and that fruit is not over ripe.

Plenty of cold water is essential. An extra amount is used in summer on account of the activity of the sweat glands.

Plenty of sleep will aid in keeping one strong and well during the hot period.

Over 150 plays were produced in London last year.

CONTRACT FOR TWO SCHOOL BUILDINGS IS LET WEDNESDAY

NORTH AND SOUTH SIDE STRUCTURES TO COST $45,000 EACH.

ONE TO BE LOCATED IN GOLF CLUB VICINITY

Site Not Yet Definitely Chosen—Buildings Will Be of Nine Rooms, One Story.

Contracts for two of the new school buildings to be erected from the proceeds of the recent $550,000 bond issue were awarded by the school board Wednesday night.

The buildings will be erected on the north side and in the vicinity of the Golf club. The location of the latter building has not been determined as yet. The north side building will be on the site of the present Fannin school, whose name it will take. The south side building has not yet been named.

Taylor Brothers were awarded the north side contract, and H. J. Naylor the south side. The buildings are identical in type, and will cost about $45,000 each.

The buildings will be of one story, containing nine class rooms, a principal's office, a combination assembly hall and cafeteria, with kitchen and store room. Each building is designed to accommodate about 350 pupils. In the center of the front of the building will be a class room, with the principal's office occupying a space alongside. Back of this will be the assembly hall, equipped with a stage, with the kitchen and store room. The other eight class rooms are in the wings, four at each end, with a corridor running the length of the front of the building.

This type of school, it is reported, will be followed extensively in future school buildings. It has the advantage of permitting additional rooms to be constructed without inconvenience, and of avoiding the noise and danger of two-story structures. Voelcker & Dixon are architects.

Contract for the addition to the Sam Houston school will be awarded shortly. All contracts are subject to the sale of the bonds, which will probably be consummated next week.

FORMER OFFICER IS ARRESTED ON FEDERAL CHARGE

J. R. Spiller, formerly a well known city and county officer, was placed under arrest by federal prohibition agents Wednesday on a charge of having a still in his possession. His bond was fixed at $500 by U. S. Commissoner J. A. Lantz. Bond was perfected and he was released.

According to the officer who made the arrest the still was found in a house next door to the one occupied by Spiller. The house had been rented under a supposed fictitious name of "Roy Jones." The lights and gas were also registered under that name.

Spiller was formerly a member of the city police force and later worked as a deputy constable. He was one of the officers who was present at the time the raid was made on the gambling house in Kent City, at which time two officers were killed.

BILL FINCHER SENT TO WESTERN LEAGUE

Spudder Flinger Goes to Barney Burch's Club—Ramsey Leaves For Bonham.

BILL FINCHER.

Bill Fincher, Spudder Flinger, was released Wednesday night by Manager Walter Salm to the Omaha club of the Western league, according to Bill himself, who passed through Wichita Falls Thursday en route to join Barney Burch and his gang. Clyde "Jumbo" Ramsey also left Wichita Falls Thursday for Bonham in the West Texas league. It is understood that Ramsey still belongs to the Spudders, however. Fincher did not know whether he was traded or sold and the exact nature of the deal could not be learned as President Harvey is out of the city.

The dismissal of Fincher comes as a distinct surprise to many local fans. It was known that Salm would have to cut down his flinging force, but few thought that Bill would be one to go. Two years ago Fincher was rated as one of the leading hurlers of the Texas league and pitched good ball for a losing club last year. This season he couldn't get off on the right foot. He is unable to explain it himself, saying "I have as much stuff as I ever possessed, but for some unknown reason I haven't been able to get going. I believe that a change of scenery will do me a world of good and I only hope that I can come back here next year. There wasn't much use in Salm holding on to me as no one knows any better than myself that I wasn't doing the club any good."

Ramsey should burn up the T-O league as he is in better shape now than he has been for a couple of years. He is subject to recall at any time.

NEGROES RECEIVE NOTICE TO LEAVE HOMES POST HASTE

WARNINGS SIGNED "K. K. K." ARE FOUND ON PORCHES THURSDAY MORNING.

APPEAL IS MADE TO ALL LOCAL OFFICERS

Order on Plain Stationery Found on Dallas, Fort Worth and Jalonic Streets.

Negroes residing on Dallas, Fort Worth and Jalonic streets awoke Thursday morning to find a notice on their front porches ordering them one and all to leave that part of the city without delay. The order was signed "K. K. K."

Appeal was immediately made to all local officers and the entire settlement was astir early in the morning. As soon as the first one was found a visit was made to the neighbor, where it was discovered that a like notice had also been posted there.

These streets include the routing of the paved highway into the city from Clay county and inasmuch as the stationery was plain and the writing very poor, officers discredited the idea that the warning had been given by the local order of the Ku Klux Klan.

The wording of the notice was poor and many of the words were misspelled. A number of negroes who kept their nerve more than the majority expressed the opinion that either some negro had written the notice and distributed it or it was done by some white man who resides in the neighborhood.

The substance of the notice was that all "niggers" one and all should take notice of this order and leave the vicinity without further delay or bear the consequences. A thorough investigation is being made by officers.

ATTENTION CENTERS AROUND QUESTION OF PICKETING

HOUSTON, July 6.—Attention in local railway strike situation centered today around the question of picketing, and it was considered likely the railroads might yet appeal to federal court.

FAIR, TRADE TRIPS, ADDING MACHINES, ROTARY SUBJECTS

More than 1,000,000 adding machines are in use in the United States at present, members of the Rotary club were told Thursday by George W. Platt, local agent, who made the weekly "classification talk" at the luncheon at the Kemp. Mr. Platt sketched the history of calculating devices from the time of the invention of the Chinese abacus down to the present time.

W. M. Stratton of Dallas, secretary of the State fair, addressed the club and promised the hearty cooperation of the Dallas association in helping make the local fair a success. He said that the Call Field site seemed suited in every way to a fair, and that Dallas would have been wonderfully pleased to get such a plant when she was starting her fair.

R. E. Shepherd urged all Rotarians to participate in the second trade trip, starting Monday, pointing out that such trips ought to be encouraged as community propositions even when the individual attained no direct benefit.

Members of the "sweet sixteen" membership team were awarded bronze bulldog desk lighters, gifts of Jack Culbertson, for winning first honors in attendance during the last three months.

Miss Mildred Martin, daughter of N. H. Martin, gave two very pleasing vocal selections. J. S. Pitman was accompanist.

In his classification talk, Mr. Platt gave a demonstration of one of his company's newest machines, which typewrites, adds, subtracts, multiplies and figures discounts in one continuous operation. Mr. Platt said that all remained to be invented was a machine that would collect the account after it was figured.

There were no candidates for state offices here during the day, the speaking being done by district and county office candidates.

The amusements consisted of sack races, sweep stake races for boys, and fat men races, wrestling matches, etc. The legion band from Sweetwater furnished some excellent music for the occasion. All entertainments except the ball game were free. Roby and Rotan played one of the swiftest ball games of the season, the score being two to nothing for Roby. CALOMEL USERS TAKE AWFUL RISK

Very Next Dose of Treacherous Drug May Start Terrible Salivation.

The next dose of calomel you take may salivate you. It may shock your liver or start bone necrosis. Calomel is dangerous. It is mercury, quicksilver. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—adv.

By Associated Press.

CORK, July 6.—Word has reached here that the cable station of the Commercial Cable company of New York at Waterville, the terminus of the trans-Atlantic cables, has been threatened by the irregular Irish forces, who have seized property of the company and its employes, terrorized the families of the employes and have demanded the key to the school quarters, to be used as general headquarters of the Irish forces.

Spudders Are Helpless Before Pate's Offerings And Cats Annex Fifth

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, July 6—The Spudders started off in whirlwind fashion here yesterday and had a regular jamboree while Bill Whittaker served 'em up for two-thirds of an inning, but when the Buzzer was pulled and Joe Pate sent in for the second time during the series all the joy was taken out of their lives. Joe was just as invincible as he was in his first start, and though the Salmites did succeed in getting one run off him in the final chapter his mates got to Abe Bowman and Babe Ruth a plenty and won the fifth and final game of the series 8 to 4.

Bowman managed to stay on the hill a bit longer than Whittaker, but he couldn't survive the second round. Ruth wasn't much better and the Cats used their nine hits to good advantage. Ruth's wildness also got him in bad on a couple of occasions.

Clarence Kraft continued his home run drive by belting one over the left field garden wall in the seventh off Babe, while Ziggy Sears also connected for the circuit in the same round. It was Kraft's fifth home run in four days off Wichita Falls hurlers.

GLEASON OF WASHINGTON PITCHED HOME TEAM TO SUCCESS WHEN ONLY 14

JOE GLEASON

Joe Gleason, moundsman of the Washington baseball club, is a pitcher whom any community would be glad to claim, but no matter where he hangs his hat Phelps, N. Y., is still his home.

Joe was born in Phelps in 1896 and as soon as he was able to toddle he began to whip his right wing in shape to become a great hurler of the leather sphere.

During his first years in school his mastery of the baseball was so pronounced that the school team was considered incomplete without Gleason in the box.

When 14 years of age he had such control of the ball that he was drafted by the home town team and pitched them to success for several seasons.

Waterloo recognized his prowess as a pitcher and signed him up for a season.

He graduated from Waterloo to New Bedford, Mass., then to the Richmond (Va.) International league. From Richmond he went to Shreveport, La., continuing with that team until 1917 when he joined the Rainbow division, serving 14 months in France.

After being mustered out of the service in 1919 he rejoined the Shreveport team and continued with that outfit until the close of the Texas league in 1920 when he booked with the Washington Americans.

Shreveport anxious for Joe's return in 1921 outbid Washington and secured his services for the season.

Big Stuff.

Evidently Joe had a hankering to get into bigger company, so when Washington offered him a contract for 1921 he accepted.

Joe is a modest, retiring fellow, and a poor self-advertiser. This may account for his being held back.

About two years ago, to strengthen his home ties, Gleason got married and, to end it, Phelps never turned out a more physically perfect fellow than Joe Gleason.

Ed Collins Talks Player Into "Bone" By Quick Thinking

There are probably few big league players who ever take the trouble to read the playing rules. Eddie Collins is one of the few, and as a result Eddie is frequently able to pull something on his less wise opponents.

Several years ago when Eddie was the star second baseman on Connie Mack's great Athletic machine, the St. Louis Browns had a first baseman named Cutina. In a game at Shibe Park one day Cutina was a base runner on first when the following batsman hit what looked to be an easy fly toward right field. Cutina ran half way down to second and then stopped to see if the ball would be caught. There was a high wind blowing and Eddie Murphy, playing right field for the Athletics, misjudged the ball and it got away from him. In the meantime the batter who hit the ball kept running and passed Cutina, reaching second base. After he saw Murphy had missed the ball, Cutina also kept on to second, and both runners were standing on the bag, neither one knowing which was out.

Collins received the throw from Murphy and started to give Cutina the laugh. "That's a fine bone you pulled, Cutey," he said. "You can go back to the bench and sit down now." Cutina, thinking that he was out, stepped off the bag and Collins tagged him with the ball, completing a double play, as it was the batter who was automatically out the minute he passed the preceding base runner on the line.

It was Cutina who pulled the "bone" through his ignorance of the rules and Collins' knowledge of the rules enabled him to pull a smart play.

PREPARING FOR THE NATIONAL OPEN TITLE

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, July 6.—With a course record of 66 set in practice by Leo Diegel of New Orleans, to shoot at, contestants entered in the record field of 288 for the national open golf championship began to whirl around the Skokie course today, preparing for the first section of the three elimination rounds that starts on Monday.

With fairways made fast by lack of rain, although offering fine lies because of the abundant turf, the expert golfers seeking the crown of James Barnes of New York are able to drive to prodigious lengths.

MILLER SENT BACK BY SALM

Jake Miller, Spudder outfielder, was sent back to Wichita Falls by Manager Walter Salm Wednesday, before the final game of the Fort Worth series. Jake tried hard enough to get back into the game, but his ankle was much too weak to permit him.

Manager Salm stated in Fort Worth that Outfielder Weiss would probably report in Wichita Falls instead of joining in Shreveport.

"Jumbo" Ramsey is still sticking around town awaiting orders from the skipper. Since he was not called to Fort Worth he believes that he will now wait here until the club returns. He is working out daily at the ball park.

VERNON FEATHERWEIGHT HASN'T LOST A BOUT

VERNON, TEXAS, July 6.—Dick Bowers of Vernon, by virtue of his defeat Tuesday at Childress by Jess Porter of that city, establishes himself as one of the leading featherweights of the southwest, in the opinion of many followers of the fistic game in this section. Bowers weighed in at 128 and Porter at 140, but the local lad battered his bigger opponent to a pulp. And in the sixth round of the go floored him with a terrific right to the chin. In falling Porter pulled Bowers on top of him, and the referee granted a foul although he called the bout a draw.

Porter suffered a broken nose and two closed eyes, and was helpless when Bowers floored him. The Vernon fighter has never been defeated. Last week he won an easy decision over Kid Peavine at Burkburnett, and has fought many times in this locality. Bowers has offered a challenge to any featherweight in the southwest.

SALE OF WILLIE KAMM WASN'T ALL PROFIT

It now appears that the price of $100,000 paid by the Chicago White Sox to the San Francisco club for Willie Kamm, the expensive Coast league product, was not wholly profit. Secretary Putnam of the San Francisco club recently received his telephone bill for the long distance talking he did with the Chicago club to put the deal over. The bill was $510. When Putnam got the bill he said: "And we used to buy ball players for that."

KEMPER WILL NOT PLAY DALLAS UNIV.

Coach Clinginpeel States While in City Grid Contest Could Not Be Arranged.

The report that Kemper will meet Dallas university of the gridiron during the Dallas fair next fall is erroneous, according to C. A. Clinginpeel, athletic chief of the Missouri institution, who is in the city at present.

That such a game was not arranged, however, was not due to any lack of effort on the part of the Cadets. An open challenge was hurled at the secondary schools and colleges of the southwest and the only one to accept was Terrill school of Dallas, but the guarantee offered by the Texans was far too small and the Kemper officials have been forced to look elsewhere for an intersectional contest.

Coach Clinginpeel will sound first call for football candidates September 15 and he expects to have 100 grid aspirants on deck the first day.

The 1922 team will be built around the only four veterans who will return. But the mentor has plenty of good material available from last year's reserves and he is confident that he will send his charges through to a conference championship.

To date eight games have been scheduled—four at home and four abroad. As usual the Wentworth battle on November 30 will be the climax of the season. The following schedule has been arranged:

SPORT SHOTS by Paul Warkin

Enough.

One more series like that in Fort Worth and the season will be over as far as the Spudders are concerned.

Some Club Will Move

Two interesting battles opened Wednesday. The Panthers and Giants started a four games series for the league leadership and the Spudders hooked up with the Gassers for the "cellarship."

No Discussion Here

The Spudders are not trying to shift the blame for defeat on each other's shoulders. In the second bill on the Fourth Keene and Summa had a friendly argument as to which one was responsible for the loss. Each maintained it was himself. Summa declared he should have made a shoestring catch on one occasion while Keene stoutly maintained that he shouldn't have tried to hook a third strike over on the last man in the ninth and thereby pass him. They've still got the right spirit.

Odd

The nation celebrated her independence Tuesday as of yore, but no heavyweight crown changed hands, strange as it may seem.

An Interesting Scrap

There'll be a lot of spaghetti fireworks at Ebbets Field in Brooklyn tonight when Johnny Dundee takes on his fellow Wop, Jack Sharkey. Sharkey recently graduated to the featherweights from the bantams and looms up as a possible contender for the crown.

One Friend Left

"Babe isn't getting fair treatment," protests the Bambino's better half, "the fans and newspapers are saying all sorts of unkind things about him and calling him a trouble maker and things like that. He isn't to blame. They talk as if he was making a nuisance of himself purposely."

Must Be Good.

American league critics are saying now that Hub Pruett's "fadeway" has Christy Mathewson's beaten. The Brown hurler has the advantage in that he throws it with his fork hand and thus gives it a peculiar twist.

Right Here at Home.

In attempting to explain the unexpected poor showing of the Cleveland Indians this year a critic says that it is due to poor pitching and inability of the batters to hit when the pitchers do turn in a good game. Wonder if anybody in Wichita Falls knows of a similar case.

Never Can Tell.

Clyde Barfoot, Former Texas league hurler, finally went the full route for the Cardinals. Abe Bowman may do likewise one of these days for the Salmites. It's always the unexpected that happens in baseball.

ENGINE SEIZED WITH WANDERLUST AND STARTS AWAY

KATY ENGINE WANDERS DOWN DENVER TRACKS TO SUNSHINE YARD.

NO DAMAGE CAUSED BY WILD MONSTER

Reported Story That Engine Had Been Stolen Is Discredited By Officials.

A Katy switch engine that was parked in the neighborhood of the union depot Wednesday night was suddenly seized with wanderlust and started on a journey all by itself, unaccompanied and alone.

The huge monster made all the switches and finally found its way to the Denver tracks and started on its way to Denver. At the Sunshine yards, however, it lost its impetus for some reason or other and stopped. A train coming towards the city noticed the blockade and was bringing it back to town when met by a crew on another engine who had gone out as a searching party.

No damage was caused by the runaway although it might have ended disastrously.

A story was circulated through the city Thursday morning that the engine had been stolen by strikers and run to the point where it was found and left there to do what damage it might. This story is absolutely discredited by railroad officials.

The theory expressed is that a leaky throttle permitted steam to escape and start the locomotive on its own accord.

FORCE OF WORKMEN MAKE PREPARATIONS TO RE-OPEN MINES

PITTSBURGH, PA., July 6—Forces of workmen today began cleaning up two mines in the Pittsburgh bituminous district preparatory to operations under a scale which the Pittsburgh Coal Producers association offered to miners and which the miners rejected before the strike became effective April 1 last. Several days will be required to put the properties in condition to hoist coal. They were under guard of Washington county deputy sheriffs and early reports from the mine said there were no disorders.

NO ACTION IS EXPECTED BEFORE MONDAY MEETING

WASHINGTON, July 6—Pending the outcome of next Monday's meeting of bituminous coal operators and miners' union officials it was believed improbable that any conclusive action toward settlement of the anthracite controversy would be taken at the second meeting today of that branch of the conference called by President Harding to consider means of settling the strike in union coal fields.

Indications were, however, that definite settlement proposals would be advanced by both sides in the anthracite conference, which, unlike the bituminous negotiators, having powers merely to suggest action by their associates, constitutes actually a joint wage negotiating group. It was believed the union contingent was prepared to offer ot negotiate a new wage contract on the general basis of scales existing March 31, while the operators, asking a reduction of wages, would propose arbitration by President Harding as a means of settlement.

SAYS WOMEN OPPOSE CHANGE IN DRY LAWS

EVANSTON, ILL., July 6—Many prominent women of America differ with Miss Elizabeth Marbury, New York authoriss and publicist, and are unalterably opposed to any change in the prohibition law, according to the Union Signal, offical organ of the National Women's Christian Temperance union.

Miss Marbury was quoted as saying at a recent meeting of the association against the prohibition amendment:

"The women of this country were the first to demand prohibition and they will be the first to repeal it."

The Union quotes several prominent women to support its contention.

FIND 150 POUCHES OF RIFLED MAIL IN DEPOT AT MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, TENN., July 6—Mail thefts believed by postoffice inspectors to amount to many thousand dollars were discovered yesterday when 150 pouches of rifled mail sacks and wrappers of hundreds of missing parcel post packages were found in an abandoned elevator shaft at one of the railroad depots. Five negroes are held in connection with the thefts.

One of the negroes told postal officials, they declare, that parcel post packages have been removed from the trucks as they were being moved from the trains. He admitted, they said, that he had been stealing packages since last year, but much of the mail found in the stolen pouches today was postmarked 1919 and 1920.

ARMY OFFICER KILLED IN VERA CRUZ FIGHTING

VERA CRUZ, July 6—Fighting among the striking members of the tenants' syndicate resulted in the death of an army officer and the serious wounding of two other officers and seven civilians. The tenants have refused to pay rents.

Soldiers were called out but their officers were attacked with knives when they attempted to pacify the mob. The arrival of reinforcements restored order.

PRESIDENT MAKES THE RETURN TRIP BY WAY OF COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 6.—Driving from his home town of Marion in one hour and 45 minutes, President Harding arrived here at 1 o'clock to participate in a celebration to be given by the Columbus republican glee club.

MARION, OHIO, July 6—President and Mrs. Harding reluctantly said goodbye to their friends here today as they prepared to leave on their automobile trip back to the white house. Their schedule called for a getaway from Marion before noon with Columbus, 50 miles away, as their destination.

Tomorrow morning the presidential party will leave Columbus with the expectation of arriving in Washington either late Saturday or Sunday. The national road route which was traversed most of the way on the trip to Marion will be followed on the return journey.

His two day visit among relatives and former neighbors, away from the cares of office, has proved invigorating to the president. He made no effort as he bade friends goodbye to conceal his regret that he could not tarry longer among them. Aside from four appearances in public, Mr. Harding kept himself pretty much in seclusion.

Marion residents who had expected him as in the old days when he was editor of the Star, to stroll down town, dropping into old haunts for a chat, were disappointed. On one occasion he walked to the Star office, but did not again go down to the business section except to review yesterday's parade.

NINETY ARRESTED FOR PLOT AGAINST THE SOVIET REGIME

By Associated Press.

MOSCOW, July 5.—Ninety arrests have been made at Simferopol in the Crimea upon the discovery of a plot against the soviet regime, it is announced here. The plotters, says the announcement, were headed by Michael Dianessief, a former officer under General Baron Wrangel, the anti-bolshevik leader in South Russia. Dianessief proclaimed himself the supreme ruler of Russia and sent a request to the former followers of General Wrangel abroad to come and assist him on a platform which it is declared pledged the assassination of Lenine and Trotsky and the general extermination or banishment of the Jews.

GENDARMES POLICING THE VATICAN HAVE MUTINED

HOUSTON MAN DIES WIFE ADMITS SHE DID THE SHOOTING

HOUSTON, July 6—Dan W. Ryan, 45, president of the Buffalo Bayou Sand and Shell Company, died at 3:45 a. m. today from wounds received at 11 o'clock last night when he was shot on the Clinton road. A charge of murder was filed against his wife.

Mrs. Ryan did not make a statement to reporters, but her attorneys said that she admitted firing the fatal shots. Her attorney said she told him the she followed her husband, discovered him with another woman, accosted him, that he threatened her and that she then fired.

She is about 30 years old and formerly lived in Lake Charles, La.

NO CONFIRMATION BIELASKI CONNIVED WITH KIDNAPPERS

WASHINGTON, July 6—Reports in Mexico City that legal proceedings were contemplated by Mexican officials against A. Bruce Bielaski on charges that he had connived at his own abduction by bandits recently near Cuernavaca, lacked confirmation today at the state department. No word has come, it was said, from Charge Summerlin to indicate he had been advised by Mexican federal authorities that they suspicioned the Bielaski incident.

Mr. Summerlin discussed the case with President Obregon's minister during the time Bielaski was held. By direction of the state department, he made representations, urging the rescue of the former head of the department of justice investigating bureau and later for the apprehension and punishment of the abductors.

ROUTE CONTROVERSY TO GO BEFORE COURT BY INJUNCTION

The city council sitting in a special meeting Thursday morning passed a resolution instructing the city attorney to get out an injunction against the county commissioners to prevent further work on Fort Worth street. It is understood the suit is a friendly one to get the route controversy before the court.

The controversy caused by the various routings of the Meridian Highway through the city of Wichita Falls has been pending by the city council and the county commissioners for some time.

The proposed route which is now favored by the city officials will bring the highway from Fort Worth street by way of Denison street to Jalonie, and from Jalonie to Lamar. A special road will have to be opened to connect Jalonie with Lamar, for at present there is no opening across the railroad tracks.

After dispersing with the highway controversy the council members gave permission for W. S. Ellis to erect a filling station at 1922 Tenth street.

No other business coming before the council, the meeting was adjourned.

REPORT ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE SOVIET DELEGATES

LONDON, July 6—A rumor that an attempt had been made to assassinate the Russian delegates to The Hague conference caused considerable excitement in the Dutch capital this morning, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch. There was no confirmation of the report up to noon.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, July 6.—The cotton market opened easy at a decline of 12 to 23 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables and sold about 25 points net lower during the early trading with October touching 22.64, or within 6 points of the lowest price touched on the decline of yesterday morning. Liverpool was a moderate seller here, while there was further scattering liquidation on commission house selling, but the offerings were not heavy and the market was comparatively quiet. Private cables said that bulls were reselling in the Liverpool market and that sentiment there was moderately bearish. There was some scattered local buying on the decline here owing to expectations that there would be bullish comment on the boll weevil situation in the weekly report of the weather bureau.

The weekly report of the weather bureau proved a little more favorable than expected and prices eased off after its publication under liquidation by some of the earlier buyers October sold down to 22.57 and December to 22.26, or about 36 to 40 points net lower, and 75 to 79 points below the high records touched after the publication of the government's crop report on Monday. There appeared to be a little more trade demand around the 22½ cent level and prices rallied a few points from the lowest later in the morning but business was quiet early in the noon hour.

The details of the weekly weather report were considered a little less favorable and helped the early advance in the afternoon which carried October up to 22.73 or about 23 points from the lowest. Except for covering, no buying of consequence was reported, however, and the rally was not fully maintained with prices ruling about 20 to 25 points net lower around 2 o'clock.

Selling increased again under the influence of continued dry weather in the interior and the outlook for fair weather tomorrow over a good part of the belt. At 12:30 o'clock prices were 38 to 44 points under yesterday's finals with October off to 22.01.

Cotton closed barely steady.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, July 6.—Absence of rain over the belt and a poor Liverpool market caused a decline in cotton prices today which, in the first hour amounted to 31 to 32 points, October falling to 22.13. Selling was more scattered than general but the market got very little support.

The weekly crop reports were at first regarded as fairly favorable and the decline was widened to 31 to 42 points, October falling to 22.03, but the trade came to the conclusion after more mature consideration, that the reports made too prominent mention of the weevil to be called really favorable. Moderate buying set in and at 11 o'clock Octobr stood at 22.21, with the list at net losses of 22 to 24 points.

Cotton closed easy at net declines of 45 to 60 points.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 6.—Covering of short contracts in the foreign oils and buying of rails based on the better outlook for an early settlement of the strike were factors in the firmer tone of today's early stock market. Mexican Petroleum and Pan-American A registered initial gains of 1½ points with further strength in Cosden. California Petroleum and General Asphalt, Studebaker rose 1½ points and Crucible and Baldwin Locomotive strengthened. Atlantic Coast Line featured the rails, rising 2½ points in the first few transactions. Louisville and Nashville, Canadian Pacific and Missouri Pacific preferred also were substantially better. Nova Scotia Steel was the one weak issue, declining almost 4 points.

Accumulation of high grade railroad shares tended to revive bullish operation in other quarters and even caused a substantial rally in the Mexican oil stocks. Bullish inspiration was derived largely from declining money rates, record prices for liberty bonds and the encouraging trade outlook in many industrials. Practically all of the popular stocks shared in the market's market's strength, with equipment, steel and food issues making a particularly good showing in the early afternoon. Louisville and Nashville extended its rise 5½ points. Manhattan Electric Supply gained 5, American Waterworks preferred 3½, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western 3, and Delaware and Hudson, Great Northern preferred, Baldwin Locomotive and American Locomotive 2 to 2½.

The closing was strong; sales approximated 750,000 shares.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, July 6.—Wheat underwent a decided setback in price today during early transactions. Houses with eastern connections were heavy sellers and crop developments were generally favorable. Reports of lessened chances of black rust damage had a bearish effect. The opening, which varied from 1 to 1½c decline, with September $1.15½ to $1.16 and December $1.18½ to $1.18¾, was followed by a material additional drop in values.

Around $1.14 for September commission houses became good buyers and caused a moderate rally. Bullish European crop estimates together with announcement of a decrease in the available supply total assisted the upturn somewhat. Prices cosd unsettled, 1¾ to 2c net lower, with September $1.14½ to $1.14¾ and December $1.17½ to $1.17¾.

Rains in the corn belt eased the market for corn and ots. After opening ¼ to ½c lower, September 67½ to 67¾c, the corn market continued to sag.

Subsequently the market became firmer. It was said more corn than the trade had realized was being worked for export from day to day. The close was unsettled at 1c to ½c decline, September 67½ to 67¾.

Oats started unchanged to ½c off, September 33½ to 39c, and later declined.

Provisions lacked support, despite higher hog quotations.

SCHOONER ARCTIC IS A WATERLOGGED WRECK BUT CREW IS IN NO DANGER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Beside the sea battered hull of the steamer Whittier, lost a month ago, the steam schooner Arctic was a waterlogged wreck today on Saunders reef, 75 miles north of here, with her crew of approximately 15 apparently in no danger. The steamer Brunswick was standing by. In a fog last night the Arctic struck the wreck of the Whittier. After striking the wreck the schooner backed off and tried to proceed to Arena cave, a distance of 25 miles. But she was leaking badly and soon was driven back to the rocks and the submerged Whittier. The Arctic then sent wireless calls for help, and the Brunswick responded. The last messages received in San Francisco did not say whether the crew had abandoned the schooner.

The Difference in Advertising Is the Difference in Men

Of itself, advertising is little. And the differences in it are the differences which exist in men.

Just as some men are strong and virile and interesting, so is some advertising. And just as some men are ineffectual and weak and boring, so is some other advertising.

"Does it pay to advertise?" It pays those men who are keen enough students of the public to make it pay them. It pays those men who are truthful, sincere, interesting and believable.

It pays the men whose product deserves the payment, whose brains are keen enough to organize for success and judge enough of the human mind to know how to tell their story with sincerity and interest.

So when you judge advertising, judge it by how it is used and by whom—not of itself and of itself alone.

Remember, an ugly man looks just as ugly in a mirror.

CELEBRATE THE SPUDDING IN OF WELL AT HASKELL

HASKELL, TEXAS, July 6.—Several hundred Haskellites Celebrated July 4 with big basket picnic in the T. E. Ballard ranch 13 miles east of Haskell and watched with much interest the spudding in of the Commonwealth Oil & Development company's well No. 1.

Immediately after a dinner of fried chicken, country ham, beans and potatoes, cakes and pies of all kinds and numerous varieties of salads, ice cream until no one would take more cream—even the kiddies had to give up on cream before it was all gone, a nice program was rendered.

Rev. McHenry Seal, Baptist pastor of the Haskell church; H. S. Wilson, P. D. Sanders, R. M. Whitaker of Haskell, S. S. Kouri of Wichita Falls, J. G. Clark, secretary, and T. A. Edmonds, president of the Commonwealth company, of Fort Worth made talks and then a reading by Miss Adena Kouri, who dedicated the well by breaking a bottle of oil on the mighty bit as it hung ready for action.

The engine whistled and whistled, then a tremor, something slipped, or better still, was released, and downward went the more than 5,000 pounds of steel bit and iron shaft, the earth jarred and the great 15 inch steel bit hit the ground a few more strokes and the Commonwealth No. 1 Ballard's ranch had spudded in.

This well is located about 1,000 feet east of the Kouri No. 1, which has been abandoned lately from the fact that they had lost three strings of tools and several joints of casing, and owing to the strong gas pressure the operators were not able to cut out the salt water. The cement would not set solid as the gas pressure was so strong that it would honey comb the cement. Both gas and showing of oil continued to come through at each attempt to cut out the water with cement.

FIRE PREVENTION COMMITTEE NAMED BY CHIEF M'CLURE

J. L. McClure, chief of the local fire department, announced Wednesday the appointment of a committee on the prevention of fire. This action was suggested to the chief by Mrs. Annie M. Poulson, who is state inspector for the fire prevention department.

Mrs. Poulson recently visited Chief McClure and discussed the work the fire prevention department is doing throughout the state. The duty of the local committee will be to give talks for fire prevention. Not only will the members do this, but it will be their duty to help and instruct the people of Wichita Falls in the work of preventing fires.

The following men compose the local committee on the prevention of fires: Chief J. L. McClure, chairman; R. E. Shepard, J. E. Ward George Dyer, Thomas Smock and Will Taylor

Find Still at The Vernon Rod And Gun Club

VERNON, TEXAS, July 6.—Probably the most unique capture in Wilbarger county law circles in recent months was recorded the Fourth of July when the sheriff's force took into custody a moonshine still which had been placed in the club house of the Spring Lake Rod and Gun club, about 15 miles northeast of Vernon The equipment was of a crude manufacture, but was in use when discovered.

The club is patronized by many of the leading business men of Vernon, who make frequent excursions to the lake on fishing trips. Two members arrived at the grounds at 2:30 Tuesday morning in order to be ready for fishing at daylight, and at their approach the operators fled. The mash in the vat was hot when it was found.

Jazz and Modern Dance Barred at Indian Gathering

HOMINY, OKLA., July 6.—Expensive motor cars, silk shirts and other luxuries of modern civilization are all right, but jazz and modern dance steps have no place at an Indian gathering.

At the inter-tribal dances being held this week at Osage village, near here, syncopated melodies and jazz dances are barred by the tribesmen.

Members of the Poncas, Otoes, Pawnees and scattering members of other tribes are attending the celebration as guests of the Osages. The financial status of the tribesmen is revealed in the manner in which they arrive at the "roundhouse."

The Osages, aristocrats of all aborigines, drive up in expensive automobiles, many piloted by chauffeurs. Members of this tribe receive quarterly payments from the government of around $5,000 each, accruing to them from oil and gas development in Osage lands. The Poncas, Otoes and Pawnees, who are just coming into their share of oil wealth, still arrive on horseback, in surreys and a few in small motor cars.

During the week's meeting there are daily dances and the tribesmen exchange gifts.

New Instrument Makes Disclosures At Bottom of Sea

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Extensive plains and table lands bordered by mountains at the bottom of the sea, some of which rise more than 4,000 feet above the plains, have been disclosed to the navy department through soundings taken by the destroyer Stewart with a new sounding device on a cruise just completed from Newport to Gibraltar.

The device, which operates on the principle of timing a "reflected echo," was perfected by Dr. Harvey C. Hayes, physicist of the engineering experimental station at Annapolis, and is expected to revolutionize piloting and navigation. An outline of trade routes through its use should give any number of landmarks at the bottom of the sea for use in finding a ship's position, an announcement by the navy department said today.

More than 900 soundings were made during the trip from Newport to Gibraltar while steaming at fifteen knots an hour. Soundings may be made in deep or shallow water without the use of lead or other casting overboard, the announcement said.

Several deep depressions at the bottom of the sea that have never been charted and positive depths data were obtained where charts showed only negative data in the vicinity of the Azores.

TRAIN SERVICE IS NORMAL STATE ALL LOCAL OFFICIALS

That passenger and freight train service is normal is the statement made by local railroad officials. They assert that no delays have been occasioned on account of the strike of the shopmen.

Several passenger trains have been late during the past few days, but officials deny that this has been due to the walkout but attribute the delays to heavy traffic over the holiday.

Wednesday night there was an apparent jam up of trains and cars in the local yards and people expressed the opinion that the trains were tied up on account of the locomotives and cars being in bad order with no workmen to fix them.

This, however, was explained Thursday by local officials as being caused by a switch engine side swiping a box car which had been pushed into a spur but not far enough to make a clearance. The small mixup was quickly righted and normal service restored.

MERCURY BEGINS TO CLIMB UPWARD AFTER BRIEF REST

Following a few cooler days after the rain of last Saturday and Sunday, the mercury has started again to approach the century mark. During the afternoon Wednesday it reached the maximum height of 96 degrees and during the night fell to the 77 degree mark.

Thursday morning immediately after sunrise there was a sudden jump upward of six degrees which gave it a good start to reach a higher point during the day

South, west and east came the report Thursday morning of clear skies and practically no wind movement. Agents stated that indications were that the day would be an exceedingly warm one.

To the north, however, the skies were clouded and a light west wind was blowing. The wind was also blowing in Wichita Falls.

Here's Something About S. S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now,—the cause of skin eruptions pimples, blackheads, boils and so on is right in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it.

When the cause of skin troubles and eruptions is in the blood, it isn't common sense to simply treat the skin. A bottle of S. S. S. will prove to you what is happening in your blood. S.S.S. is a scientific blood cleanser,—it drives out the impurities which cause eczema, tetter, rash, pimples, boils, blackheads blotches and other skin eruptions. When these impurities are driven out, you can't stop several very nice things from happening. Your lips turn naturally rosy. Your eyes sparkle, your complexion clears. It becomes beautiful. Your face looks like that of a prosperous, ruddy, well-fed, refined gentleman, or if you are a woman, your complexion becomes the real kind that the whole world so admires. S.S.S. is also a powerful body-builder, because it builds new and more blood cells. That's why it fills out sunken cheeks, bony necks, thin limbs, helps regain lost flesh. It costs little to have this happen to you. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Health is wealth itself—

and depends more upon the selection of proper food than upon anything else.

The reason is simple—the right kind of food digests promptly and is absorbed into the blood for building sound tissue; while food that digests slowly may ferment and lead to serious conditions.

Grape-Nuts—the delicious cereal food made from whole wheat flour and malted barley—is so easy to digest that even delicate people and young children thrive on it.

This is only natural, because Grape-Nuts is baked for 20 hours, which transforms and partially pre-digests the starch elements, resulting in easy digestion and quick assimilation.

Served with milk or cream Grape-Nuts is a complete food—and along with its nutritive qualities is that wonderful flavor!

CHIROPRACTIC

The medical profession has again had a chiropractor hauled into court trying to have some believe he has practiced medicine and that he is a felon, a criminal of the worst type, when he has only practiced chiropractic, which is not related to medicine in the least. F. A. Black with five years practice of chiropractic behind him in Wichita Falls again faces the music for about the steenth time. Come over to the court house, Friday, July 7 and hear us defend chiropractic and the good that word embodies. We will lay down at the beckon of the medical profession? I should say no.
